

Riversong Mixed-Use Development

Farmington, New Mexico

Creating a Center Among the Mesas

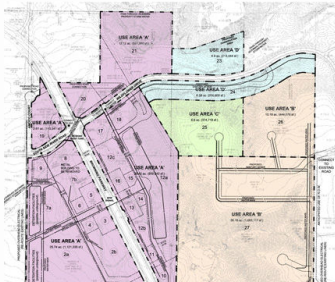

Topographical Conditions

As a strategic partner to AprudentiA Corporation, TBS is committed to development for the culturally-rich city of Farmington. Framed by mesas and rivers, the location is poised to take advantage of regional shifts of population, bringing substantial residential growth. The Mission Compatible Development includes the new 100,000 sf Oasis Church, a retail lifestyle center, office and residential. Farmington is the largest city in San Juan County, home of the Navajo Indian Nation. The introduction of mixed-use development will transform the standards of Farmington.
